(1) WMIH stock closed at $0.77 on February 9, 2018. The valuation set forth above, which would result in a pro forma per share price of $22.39, is calculated based on NSM 2018E EPS consensus of $2.18 adjusted for anticipated incremental debt expense in the transaction, federal net operating loss carryforward utilization and five year average NSM price to equity multiple of 8.7x, adjusted for the implied exchange ratio in the transaction. These assumptions are subject to adjustment and subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause the actual adjustments to differ potentially materially from $22.39 per share, which could cause the actual aggregate value of the WMIH shares received by Nationstar shareholders to be potentially greater than or materially less than $702 million
