Nationstar Receives Top Servicing Performance Rating from Fannie Mae

For the 2nd year in a Row, the Company is awarded Five STAR designation for overall performance in 2015

Dallas, TX (April 20, 2016) – Nationstar Mortgage LLC , a leading residential mortgage services company, announced today it received Fannie Mae’s highest level of performance recognition – the Five STAR designation – in the 2015 Servicer Total Achievement and Rewards™ (STAR™) program. This is the second year in a row that the Company has received this designation. The STAR program recognizes mortgage servicers for overall performance, customer service and foreclosure prevention efforts, and Nationstar ranked #1 among all large U.S. mortgage servicers evaluated for its 2015 performance.

“We take great pride in this recognition, and it is yet another reflection of our complete dedication to making the customer experience great,” said Jay Bray, President and Chief Executive Officer of Nationstar Mortgage. “Our partnership with Fannie Mae enables us to make homeownership in America something that is achievable for hardworking families. This also demonstrates Nationstar’s commitment to Fannie Mae and the high standards, discipline and effort required to maintain a top-rating with the organization.”

About Fannie Mae STAR

The STAR Program supports the industry by establishing a transparent and formal framework to recognize Fannie Mae servicing partners for their competency, capacity and overall performance. This performance management framework supports a comparative program designed to gauge relative performance. STAR designation is based on performance on both the STAR Performance Scorecard and STAR Operational Assessments. STAR designation criteria details are located in the 2015 STAR Reference Guide located on its website at <https://www.fanniemae.com/singlefamily/star>.
